

Special Summer School

May 20 - June 09, 2016

Human Resource Development Centre, Pt. Ravishankar Shukla University

Raipur- 492010, Chhattisgarh, India

Course Coordinator: Dr. Arvind Agrawal

Theme: Ethics in Higher Education: Teaching, Learning and Research

The goal of the Special Summer School is to build up valuable academic qualification of the participants. The need of the hour is to change and improve in quality of teaching, learning and research in the HEIs. The process is dynamic. It is equally important to adhere to ethics in teaching, learning and research methodologies while adopting changes in the process. This Summer School will focus on ethical aspects of teaching, learning and research in the domain of higher education.

Raipur and its Surroundings: The city of Raipur is the capital of Chhattisgarh. It represents the administrative, educational, business and industrial seat of the State. In its immediate neighborhood lies, Bhilai, the steel city of India, where the largest steel plant of Asia is located. In the south of Raipur is the tribal heart of India-the Bastar, where the tribal culture, art and philosophy are still preserved in original form along with the natural settings in deep and thick woods. Bastar is also famous for its numerous waterfalls and subterranean lime stone caves, besides the lush green Sal forest. In May and June the climate of Raipur is quite warm. Normal cotton clothing and other light outfit are recommended. Raipur is located about 300 Km from Nagpur in the East on the Mumbai-Kolkata trunk line. It is well connected by Air, Rail and Road.
