Session 2023-24

1. Conduct a Session on achieving Problem-Solution Fit and Product-Market Fit.

Activity Name	Pragati College organizes Case Study on Business Law in association with IICPRSU.
Date of Activity	10 January 2024
Beneficiary	Students
Objective of Activity	To describe an individual situation (case), e.g. a person, business, organisation, or institution, in detail; → identify the key issues of the case (your assignment question should tell you what to focus on); → analyse the case using relevant theoretical concepts from your unit.
Activity Outcome	Case studies can identify necessary and insufficient conditions, as well as complex combinations of necessary and sufficient conditions. They argue that case studies may also be useful in identifying the scope conditions of a theory: whether variables are sufficient or necessary to bring about an outcome.
