SCHOOL OF STUDIES IN HISTORY

PT. RAVISHANKAR SHUKLA UNIVERSITY
RAIPUR (C.G.)

About University

Pt. Ravishankar Shukla University is Chhattisgarh's largest and oldest institution of higher education, founded in 1964, and named after the first chief minister of erstwhile Madhya Pradesh. The University has a sprawling campus in the western part of the capital of Chhattisgarh, Raipur. The campus of University is spread in 207 acres of land. There are Twenty Eight teaching departments in the University. A variety of self financed courses have been initiated in some departments. The total number of employees is 700, who provide the administrative support at different levels.

Attracted by the opportunity to study and conduct advanced research with renowned professors and fellow scholars in one of the Chhattisgarh's most dynamic cities, students also come from the neighboring states. There are 5000 students enrolled for variety of courses offered by the departments who are steered under the guidance of more than 100 faculty members. There are 131 educational institutions affiliated to the University.

School of Studies in History

The School of Studies in History as a University Teaching Department of Pt. Ravishankar Shukla University was established in August 1971 with the purpose to provide teaching and research facilities to students and scholars in History of Modern India and Regional History.

The Post Graduate program was initiated since its inception, Ph.D. was started in 1974 and M. Phil. in 1985-86 and continued till 2019-20. The CBCS (Choice Based Credit System) has been introduced in the Department Since 2015-16. History is very popular among different students from science and social science in CBCS and the strength in this course is always very high. Admission to all courses are given on the basis of academic grades of the candidates and marks secured in an Entrance Test. A number of Seminars and Workshops have been organized to keep the students, scholars and the faculty updated.

Vision and Mission
