Dear Applicant,

Thank you very much for choosing UGC-HRDC PRSU, Raipur, Chhattisgarh for Online Multidisciplinary Refresher Course in Tribal Studies: Emerging Perspectives. We welcome you to be associated with us for next two week (November 23 – December 05, 2020). During this period we and our resource persons would be connecting with you through GOOGLE MEET. Kindly ensure a robust internet and electricity connectivity for continuance of the program. The time table along with the name and address of resource persons and the topic of their lecture will be made available to you in advance. The link for every day's lectures would also be sent to you on the group email and Whatsapp group. Please check your email regularly during the course since lot other information including abstract of lectures, write up and power point presentation etc will be shared with you. Feedback Google form will also be forwarded to you immediately after each lecture and you will be required to fill it immediately before the start of next lecture/activity. You will also be assessed for the subject through MCQ, quizzes, discussion forum, seminar, project activity, microteaching etc. After successful completion of the activity you will be provided certificates with obtained grade. Participation (100%) will be compulsory in all the lectures and activity, failing which you would not be provided with the certificate of participation. The specific details on the subject will be shared with you by the Course Coordinator.

The email address, contact number of all the resource persons, course coordinator and the Assistant directors at HRDC will be shared with you for query and interaction if you feel so.

Some other things/information for the smooth conduct of the program which you should take care will include:

1. The HRDC reserves the right to alter/ modify the terms and conditions of the online course as and when required.
2. Facilities/ Equipment required for attending the online program has to be managed by the participants.
3. Organizers will not be responsible for poor internet connectivity at the end of participants.
4. All the participants must ensure 100% attendance and punctuality during the entire duration of the program.
5. All the participants must provide their own correct email ID and Whatsapp number.

6. Submission of MCQs, Quiz, Assignments, Project work, Seminar, Panel discussion etc are compulsory as per the requirements of the course.
7. The certificate with grade shall be provided to the participants who will successfully complete the course activities and having 100% attendance. No leave will be sanctioned to the participants during the course.
8. The participants will not undertake any other assignments, activities, classes, meetings etc (online/offline) during the course timings and duration as this happens to be full time online course as per UGC guidelines.
9. The participants should take appropriate permission/ full time duty leave, NOC from the Employer for this purpose.
10. In the online lectures/ classes, participants will turn on their web camera all through for better interaction and follow the instructions suggested by the CC or HRDC.
11. Participants should always be in presentable form and follow meeting etiquette.
